My Life of Dread is Life With Hope Now

IPM, may grace be with you and peace from God. Thank you all for the time and love you give to saving the lives of lost sheep. My gratitude is beyond words. I see and feel the change in myself and others I minister to. Thank you for your prayers. I pray for all in the body of Christ faithfully. My life of dread is life with hope now. All I want to do is tell others about Jesus and how I found myself in Him. I can't stop smiling even when facing hardship, because my reward lies ahead. Thank you Jesus!

I Was at My Lowest Point

I was quarantined in a cell block alone in solitary confinement due to a widespread Covid outbreak. It was there that I had a very profound experience with God. I was at my lowest point in my life when I cried out to Him for help and He delivered. Today I have a deep spiritual hunger like no other. I want to learn the Word and study it and obey it. Thank you and may God continue to bless your ministry.

Thank You for Your Hard Work

To the Chaplain Ray family,

At this time I would like to thank you all there for your help with sending me these eye-opening books. They have helped me a lot. Thank you for your hard work. The work you are doing is a blessing to me. Without it, I think I would have not made it through the hard times. God bless all of you there at International Prison Ministry.

John L., California Prison

Hello, my message is that Christ changed my life! Thank you for your ministry!

Joshua T., Texas Prison

IPM prayerfully responds to every prisoner who writes to us.

We bless them with an encouraging letter and a variety of biblical resources, such as: Bibles, Bible Dictionary/Concordances, Testimonial and Devotional Books, and other Bible Study helps.

Seven Hours to Live

*“Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever”
- Hebrews 13:8*

This is the story of the last minute miracle deliverance of Joe Frank Logue.

Only a fence separated the Timmerman and Logue farms, but that fence line was destined to set off a family feud in which five persons would die by gunfire and three more would die in the electric chair at the South Carolina Penitentiary. A fourth person would come within seven hours of dying in that same electric chair, but his life was spared by a twentieth century miracle of answered prayer.

A young judge would risk his life to persuade Sue and Wallace Logue to surrender to arrest in the midst of an armed standoff. That young judge would rise in his nation’s political arena to become a Presidential candidate, and to serve many years as a Senator from South Carolina, the honorable Senator Strom Thurmond. South Carolina Governor Johnston would figure prominently in this case before the full story was told, and would leave his governor’s mansion at night to save the life of a condemned man for whom no hope of mercy could be seen or expected by anyone but that lonely man in his small death row cell—Joe Frank Logue.

Our Gift to You

Miraculous stories like the one of Joe Frank Logue reach into the deepest and darkest of hearts. Many inmates have been touched by this testimony.

We praise the Lord for all who partner with IPM through their faithful prayers and generous giving which enable IPM to continue to share God’s love and truth with those behind bars.
