Where Would I Be?

*If it wasn't for the Lord watching over me?
Through the sorrows and the pains,
Where would I be without the Lord's love,
that covers me like the peace of a dove.
As I walk through this life, where would I be,
Without God's grace that puts a smile on my face.
Free to worship my Father of Light,
Who's glory shines to bright.
Where would I be without Your salvation free,
for all my hope is found in Thee.
Reaching down in love to touch my face,
and wipe my tears away,
Never again to be there, with my Father's loving care.
Where would I be without Your guiding light,
that walks me through the darkest night?
No more fighting the battle that's already won,
through Christ the Begotten Son.
So walk along this path called life,
Christ the Savior of your life.
Bend down on your knees and raise your voice,
And state your plea, for the God of love will set you free.
Amen.*

You Touch so Many Lives

Thank you for all that everyone there does in spreading God's ever loving word and power to change lives. Thank you especially for all you do for us behind these bars. You touch and change so many lives through Jesus Christ's saving work. I pray I can give back to IPM an inkling of what you all have given me throughout my journey here behind bars!

Hope Through God's Word

Thank you IPM for giving hope to the world through God's word!

Carlos C., Texas Prison

IPM prayerfully responds to every prisoner who writes to us.

We bless them with an encouraging letter and a variety of biblical resources, such as: Bibles, Bible Dictionary/Concordances, Testimonial and Devotional Books, and other Bible Study helps.

The Testimony of Chaplain Ray

*“The Lord has sent me . . . to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that our bound”
- Isaiah 61:1*

Chaplain Ray saw the miracle transformation that had occurred in his friend, Ron Bayles, an ex-convict. Ron’s life became so totally transformed, he was like an entirely new person. At the age of 19, Chaplain Ray surrendered his life to Christ and discovered that “when you meet Christ and Christ comes into your life, and makes you a new creature, it’s no longer you, but it’s Christ in you the hope of glory, and the earnest of what is to come. When we believe in our heart on the Lord Jesus and confess with our mouth the Lord Jesus, that God hath raised Him from the dead, that we will be saved, and that we are saved. He never turns any away.”

Chaplain Ray would say regarding prisoners that, “Prisoners often feel rejected. They feel hopeless; they feel helpless. Don’t ever give up on any prisoner. As long as there’s life, there’s hope. As long as God lives, there is hope in Him for a changed life.” When anyone would ask him, “Why do you want to waste your life on prisoners? What can they do for you?” He would respond, “Prisoners don’t have to do anything for me. One of them did it all a long time ago. And it has lasted all these years.”

Our Gift to You

We praise the Lord for the life and the ministry of Chaplain Ray. May this video be a blessing to you, our ministry partner.

We praise the Lord for all who partner with IPM through their faithful prayers and generous giving which enable IPM to continue to share God’s love and truth with those behind bars.
