If Jesus is Knocking at My Door, I Shall Answer

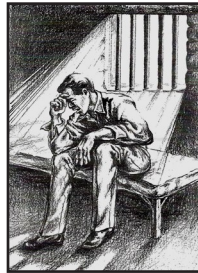

I have read your life-changing books. I have been in and out of jail and prison since I was 19 years old. I feel as if God has put me in here to change, and I want and I need it. I know I am a sinner. I feel dead inside. I know if I accept Jesus and let Him into my heart, I will feel alive. I know how I lived my life and the choices I've made are wrong. I'm not proud of it. If Jesus is knocking at my door, I shall answer and let Him into my heart. I pray this prayer with you: "Heavenly Father, I know that I am a sinner and ask for Your mercy. I believe Christ died for my sins. I now invite Jesus Christ to come into my heart as my personal Savior. I will follow and obey Christ by Your grace, making Him the Lord of my life from this day forward. Amen."

Shantel P, Iowa Prison

I'm Truly Thankful

It is a blessing to me for you guys to take the precious time out of your lives to spend with me. I'm truly thankful. I praise God and give thanks to Him. He deserves more than I could ever give.

Thank You for Your Ministry

Thank you for your ministry to inmates. Your Bibles, devotionals, and testimonials have helped me and so many others. Thank you for your encouragement and dedication to spread the Word of God.

Thank You So Much for Your Dedication to Helping Inmates

Thank you so much for your dedication to helping inmates discover and learn about our awesome Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. As an inmate without much earthly family, it warms my heart to be a part of God's Kingdom—having so many brothers and sisters in Christ. I value and appreciate your ministry very much.

Arrested in the Kingdom

*"...until the words of God shall be fulfilled."
- Revelation 17:17*

Oswaldo Magdangal knew the dangers of holding Christian Bible studies and worship meetings in Saudi Arabia. But Oswaldo, known by his friends as "Pastor Wally," decided to stay and pray. The knock at the door finally came—the religious police had arrived. This is the story of Oswaldo's arrest, torture, and trust in God as Christmas Day 1992 drew nearer, the day on which he was due to be hanged.

"The following is an account of my experience as a Christian in a country that has yet to embrace the love of God in Christ. Without Jesus in my life this experience is meaningless. But because of Jesus Christ in me this experience proves the reality of God, His love, His power, His supernatural attributes as well as His abundant grace. Without Jesus Christ in my life everything would be meaningless. But because of Jesus Christ I have found meaning to life in this world, no matter what this world does to someone who loves God. To God be the glory now and forevermore."
