The Best Choice That I Have Made in My Life

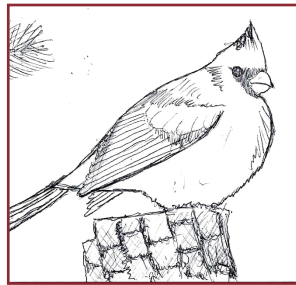

I gave myself to the Lord in April of this year, and it's the best choice that I have made in my life. I'm eager to learn as much as I can about God. I've been reading the Bible as much as I can. Please pray for me that I will grow in the Word so that I may be able to teach others.

- Juan V., Texas Prison

I Can't Get Enough

I have recently been writing and receiving amazing reading material in which I can't get enough. As I continue to request materials, each one hits different and opens my eyes in a different way. So for that I say "thank you!"

He Loves Me, He's My Friend

God has been doing a great work in my life—a true transformation. I found out He loves me. I found out He's my friend. Thank your ministry for my new Bible and all you do to help us!

- Dwain B., Texas Prison

I Have Grown so Much from This Material

Thank you for your amazing collection of literature that you provide. Your books are getting me through a horrible time. I have grown so much from this material. With thanks and love,

- Katherine D., Colorado Prison

I'm Extremely Thankful

I'm extremely thankful for all the wonderful work your ministry does for those in need. May God bless every single one of you. May His grace continue to live through you and extend to those in need. Glory be to God!

- Juan G., California Prison

IPM prayerfully responds to every prisoner who writes to us.

We bless them with an encouraging letter and a variety of biblical resources, such as: Bibles, Testimonial and Devotional Books, and other Bible Study helps.

Corrie Ten Boom Speaks to Prisoners

*“There is no pit so deep, that God’s love is not deeper still”
- Corrie Ten Boom*

Corrie Ten Boom was a survivor of the Nazi concentration camp in Ravensbruck, Germany. By an error of men and a miracle of God, her life was spared just a few days before she and all the women of her age were scheduled to die in the gas ovens.

Corrie sat down in an interview with Chaplain Ray to send a special message to prisoners:

“Now my friends, I am glad that I can tell you a little bit of what I have experienced when I was in prison. In that terrible prison I learned the greatest riches of my life, riches, yes! It was the apostle Paul who wrote, when he was in a terrible prison, ‘I count everything as loss compared with the priceless privilege, the overwhelming preciousness, the surpassing worth and the supreme advantage of knowing Jesus Christ my Lord.’ He wrote that when he was in the terrible prison. He continued to write and became more deeply and intimately acquainted with the Lord. That is what happened to me. I got more intimately acquainted with the Lord Jesus Christ. He had promised, ‘I will be with you always till the end of the world.’ ”

Our Gift to You

Countless prisoners have been touched by the powerful and encouraging testimony of Corrie Ten Boom.

We praise the Lord for all who partner with IPM through their faithful prayers and generous giving which enable IPM to continue to share God’s love and truth with those behind bars.
